Commonly referred to as the Zen House, this 1969 Mid Century modern home boasts walls of glass, showing off spectacular views of the San Jacinto and the Santa Rosa mountain ranges from the 14th green of the Indian Canyons North Golf Course.

A spacious entry opens up to an inviting living room and dining room, step down bar as well as a cozy gas fireplace. The quartz counter tops, stainless steel appliances, and continuous flow from the kitchen to the large family room makes for easy entertaining of family and friends. Two generous sized guest bedrooms
